

2016 - Dalliston Series Guidelines

The BMXNZ Dalliston Trophy Series is the corporate team competition within the sport in New Zealand. The Series is offered to commercial teams to promote their brand & create a structured team environment. The following guidelines offer the regulations to enter the competition & the structure of the series points format.

RULES

- Teams to consist of a maximum of 8 riders, but no fewer than 5.
- All riders must be Challenge or Championship license holders of BMXNZ.
- Teams to consist of no more than 2 female riders.
- Teams may consist of North or South Island riders.
- Teams to have no more than 1 cruiser rider.
- Riders can enter this competition in only one class and for only one team.
- All team members must wear the same race top. No variations to the jersey design will be allowed for individual team members. All members must wear the same colour race pants.
- All race tops must identify the team's sponsor on the jersey. Size panel to be at least 80mm x 200mm.
- Team names must be lodged, on the official entry form (along with a proof of the race jersey) and be received by BMX NZ no later than mid-night on Thursday the 31st of December 2015.

ROUNDS

All seven Regional Championships plus South Island Titles, North Island Titles & National Championships will be recorded towards the Dalliston Series.

POINTS FORMAT

- Points at each event will be calculated for the top 5 riders at each round, using the points from the first 4 motos at nominated meetings.
- The total of the best 5 points scoring rounds, PLUS the BMX NZ Nationals will be used to calculate the series points.
- Points will only be taken from Challenge and Championship classes – novelty classes such as Superclass will not count towards points for teams.
